

ReEntry Works

ReEntry Works is a new partnership in Bridgeport helping people succeed in the workforce after incarceration.

Services include:

Job Matching

Work readiness

Job placement and support

Weekly Job Club meetings

Links to education, training, and other needed services

Eligibility:

- ReEntry Works serves people referred by DOC and on parole or living in a halfway house.
- Walk-Ins and those on probation must meet program requirements of being released within 6 months, and convicted of state or federal crime — but no violent offenses. For more information or to make a referral, please contact Eric Rey at (203) 610- 6209.
- Individuals must understand and commit to program rules!